Respect Camp Lee Property

We ask that you and your guests respect Camp Lee property. This includes all buildings, equipment, nature, and wildlife that reside at Camp Lee.

- Pick up all rubbish that your group may have and put it in the appropriate trash can/recycling bin around camp property.
- Clean up your area prior to leaving camp. Make sure that all trash has been placed in a bag and all trash bags are placed outside the front door of the building.
- Be kind to the wildlife. There are many wild animals that call Camp Lee home, and we want to be good stewards of them. Please do not allow your guests to chase and play with any of the animals. Our lakes are for catch and release fishing only. Please do no additional harm to the fish.
- If you place any signs or decorations around camp, please make sure they are taken down prior to your departure. Please do not use nails, staples, or glue of any kind to hang signs or decorations on camp property. If you need assistance hanging a sign, please notify a member of Camp Lee's staff.

Failure to follow these rules may result in a damages fee. Breakage and damage to any equipment/facilities must be reimbursed at the replacement price.

Camp Lee Safety Guidelines

Your group is expected to follow all Camp Lee Safety Guidelines. These guidelines can be found on our website www.camplee.org.
